International Women’s Day celebration at ARIBAS, New Vallabh Vidyanagar-

International Women’s Day celebration is organized by Women Cell on Wednesday, 10th March 2015. Three of ARIBAS Girls have shared their views on current issues of “Women Education” and the past and present statues of women in Indian society. IGBT Girl Students Ms. Janushi Modi and Ms. Krishna Saraiya had explained the necessity and effect of Women education in Indian Society. They have represented the statistical data about status of girl education in different states of India. They have emphasized that it’s a moral duty of each girl to create awareness about need of women education in the society for encouragement of woman’s status in the society. And they ended their presentation with a quote saying “Every man needs a women when his life is a mess, because just like in a game of chess, the Queen protects the King”

Ms. Monika Patel IGBT 6th semester has deliver a talk on ‘Women empowerment’ and stated that woman is entitled to live with dignity and in freedom from want and from fear. She has added that women having hidden potential within her, only there is need to identify it. She has explained the components of women empowerment and stated that a single strategy cannot empower women but it is a continuous process and there has to be continuous addition to this process by women herself.

She also emphasized that education is the most important factor for any empowerment and a powerful intellect is necessary for this purpose and there by suggested that the students should inculcate the habit of acquiring knowledge through co-curriculum reading.

She also narrated that the important point for women empowerment is having information that helps in understanding, analyzing the situations and aids in developing creativity. The talk was attended by faculties, non-teaching staff and students of ARIBAS.

Gyan Forum programme in ARIBAS, New Vallabh Vidyanagar

In accordance to increase other knowledge in students with study Gyan Forum has arranged a program on 13th March-2015, in which a talk by experts from MYCrave consultancies and services delivered. Mr. Dhruv and Ms. Pooja Menon from the MYCrave share their knowledge on Patents, trademark and copyright. Mr. Dhruv and Ms. Pooja explained basics of Patent, what is patentable, role of Patent in students life, value of patent. Recent controversies with crazy examples, detailed procedure and about the content of patent filing. They have shared their knowledge on basics of copy right about detailed procedure of copy right. With that Ms. Pooja explained basics of trade mark, types and classes of trademark. She also explained what is effectiveness and usefulness of trade mark with detail procedure. It was an interactive lecture with the students, students enhance their knowledge.